

POWDER COATING

August 2010

Visit our Web site at [www.pcoating.com].

Extreme Powder Coating, Blooming Prairie, Minn., powder coated the steel for the shelter housing the restored Nunley's Carousel, Long Island, N.Y. Photo courtesy of Extreme Powder Coating. For more information, see the case history in this issue on page 27.

ISSUE FOCUS: ARCHITECTURAL COATING

16 Photo showcase: Powder coating reaches new heights in architectural market

Three companies from Maine, Texas, and Minnesota showcase their work in the architectural market.

22 Case history: Bar-grating manufacturer diversifies by adding a powder coating operation for its grating and architectural products Peggy Koop

An Ohio-based company overcomes architectural market resistance to powder coatings by educating architects, engineers, and general contractors on benefits.

26 Update: Products used for architectural powder coating

27 Case history: Midwest powder coater waltzes into the major leagues by building a solid reputation coating large parts for historic projects Peggy Koop

A go-kart enthusiast turned powder coater grows his business in a few short years simply by seeing a need and fulfilling it. As a result, Billy Joel and the Minnesota Twins share an Extreme point of view.

INFOFILES

10 Hooks and racks

11 Film thickness gauges

TROUBLESHOOTING

31 Coater's corner: Passing gas...from aluminum castings Greg Yahn

33 Pretreatment problem solver: An expert answers your questions Brad B. Gruss

37 Powder coatings clinic: Antifouling marine powder coatings Marek W. Urban and Dhanya Ramachandran

39 Q & A: Responses to readers' questions George Trigg and Nick Liberto

SHOW PREVIEW

44 International Manufacturing Technology Show (IMTS): Sept. 12-18, Chicago's McCormick Place.

DEPARTMENTS

5 Updates: Industry

7 Suppliers

7 Events

8 People

12 Supplier tips

46 Markets

47 Product watch

48 Classifieds/Custom coaters

48 Advertiser's index

Cover 3 Article Index: Suggested reading